.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a Writ, Order or direction more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus declaring the action of the respondents without considering the Memorandum dated 27-2-2004 (for extension of lease for further period of 6 years and for remission of lease amount by 50%), issuing demand notice to pay an amount of Rs.2,60,000/- with interest towards alleged balance of rent is arbitrary, unjust, unfair and violative of Article 14,19(1)(g), 21 and 300-A of the Constitution of India and consequently to direct the respondents to consider the representation dated 27-2-2004 for extension of lease for further period of 6 years and to reduce the lease rent by 50%.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.PARAVASTHU KRISHNA

Counsel for the Respondent No.1: SMT N.INDRANI

Counsel for the Respondents 2 and 3: GP FOR ENDOWMENTS

The Court made the following :

THE HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE G.ROHINI

WRIT PETITION NO.14848 OF 2004

ORAL ORDER :

This writ petition is filed seeking a Writ of Mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in issuing demand notice to pay an amount of Rs.2,60,000/- with interest towards alleged balance of rent, without considering the Representation of the petitioner dated 27-02-2004 for extension of lease for a further period of 6 years and for remission of lease amount by 50% as arbitrary and illegal.

The petitioner claims to be a lessee in respect of the usufruct of Cashewnut in the land to an extent of Ac.162.64 cents situated in Sy.Nos.84, 72/2 and 72/3, Compartment No.8, near Nerellavalasa village, Bhimunipatnam Mandal, Visakhapatnam District, belonging to the 1st respondent – Maharaja Alak Narayan Society of Arts & Science. The lease amount was Rs.3,60,000/- per annum. It appears that by virtue of the orders dated 21-04-1999 of this Court in W.P.No.13666 of 1998, the petitioner was continued as a lessee for a further period of five years with effect from 01-05-1999. Thus, the lease was valid upto 30-04-2004. However, the case of the petitioner is that due to severe drought and also severe cyclones, the heavy investment made by the petitioner to a tune of Rs.4,00,000/- for the purpose of watering, spraying of pesticides, manures, etc., has become dead-waste and he suffered heavy losses. Consequently, he had to raise loans from private parties for higher rate of interest. He states that in the circumstances, he made a number of representations to the respondents requesting to reduce the existing rents by 50% and to renew the lease in his favour for a further period of 6 years. In pursuance of one of such representations dated 27-02-2004, the petitioner was informed by the 3rd respondent – Government of Andhra Pradesh by Memo dated 10-03-2004 stating that his representation has been sent to the 2nd respondent - Commissioner of Endowments, for taking necessary action as per law. Even thereafter, no action has been taken by the 2nd respondent. Aggrieved by the said inaction, the petitioner filed W.P.No.5577 of 2004, which was disposed of by this Court by order dated 30-04-2004, leaving it open to the petitioner to make an application, in which event, the respondents are directed to consider the same in accordance with law. The petitioner further states that while the matters are pending, he was served with a legal notice dated 30-06-2004 got issued by the 1st respondent Society, calling upon the petitioner to pay a sum of Rs.2,60,000/- along with outstanding interest at 12.5% p.a., besides the interest on the defaulted amount. In spite of the repeated requests made by the petitioner for statement of accounts or for receipts for the amounts he paid, he was not given any account by the 1st respondent and on the other hand 1st respondent is preparing to put the leasehold rights of the lands in question for public auction. Hence, this writ petition.

When the matter came up before this Court i.e, on 20-08-2004 this Court granted interim direction to the respondents not to dispossess the petitioner from the lands in question.

Now, the learned Standing Counsel appearing for the 1st respondent, under instructions, states that the auction has already been conducted on 25-08-2004, but the same has not been confirmed. The learned Standing Counsel further states that pursuant to the orders of this Court in W.P.No.5577 of 2004 granting liberty to the petitioner to make a request before the respondents seeking extension of lease period, the petitioner never made any application before the 1st respondent, who is the competent authority for extension of lease. Thus, according to the learned Counsel, the petitioner has no legal right to continue in possession, since admittedly the lease period expired on 30-04-2004 and therefore the petitioner is not entitled to any relief and the writ petition is liable to be dismissed in limini.

The learned Counsel for the petitioner did not dispute the fact that the lease period has already expired. However, he submitted that since the petitioner has suffered heavy losses, it would be appropriate to permit him to continue in possession for a further period of minimum two years.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, I am of the view that as rightly contended by the learned Standing Counsel for the 1st respondent, it is for the petitioner to make an appropriate representation before the 1st respondent – Executive Officer, if he intends to continue in possession, seeking extension of lease granted in his favour. Since there is nothing on record to show that he made such a request before the 1st respondent – Executive Officer, the relief as prayed for cannot be granted and there cannot be a direction to the respondents to extend the lease.

However, with regard to the claim of the petitioner for remission of lease amount by 50%, it is to be noted that by virtue of the proceedings of the 3rd respondent – Government of Andhra Pradesh, dated 10-03-2004, the matter has been referred to the 2nd respondent – Commissioner of Endowments for taking necessary action as per law. The learned Counsel for the petitioner states that the proceedings are still pending before the 2nd respondent – Commissioner of Endowments. If that be so, there shall be a direction to the 2nd respondent – Commissioner of Endowments to consider the claim of the petitioner and to pass appropriate orders in accordance with law as expeditiously as possible preferably within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of this order.

Accordingly, the Writ Petition is disposed of. No costs.

Needless to mention that the interim order granted on 20-08-2004 shall stand vacated. No costs.

14th September, 2004.
